

TERMS OF REFERENCE BUILDING AND CURATING THE CSTL ECOSYSTEM

Submission	Megan Cockerill, meganc@miet.co.za
Deadline	16 November 2020

Introduction

MIET AFRICA is a not-for-profit education organization that aims to improve the lives of children and youth through supporting the provision of quality education for all. We actively identify barriers to education achievement and conceptualize and pilot ground-breaking, replicable interventions that address these challenges. We influence and enable policy in education, partnering with government and other stakeholders to ensure participation, ownership, relevance, and sustainability of interventions, and to maximize their impact.

Care and Support for Teaching and Learning (CSTL) is an innovative approach that responds to the millions of children and youth in the region whose right to education is compromised by a host of barriers to quality teaching and learning. The SADC CSTL Policy Framework provides ministries of education with guidance in strengthening their systems so that schools are able to serve as sites of integrated support where quality education is secured and child and youth-friendly services are provided in support of health, gender, migration, food security and other challenges.

Scope of Work

MIET AFRICA requires a service provider to design, curate, evolve and support the CSTL online ecosystem. The ecosystem will focus on stakeholder engagement and learning as well as knowledge management and sharing, in ways that accelerate the impact of the CSTL mandate.

The design of the online ecosystem will be developed following a strategy session where the initial blueprint of the ecosystem is determined, including: setting the objectives, the purpose, the initial shared experience and the measurement strategy. Ongoing community management, engagement and curation will be required for a 12-month period, until November 2021.
